

Webinar to Discuss the 2019 Community Recommendations and Selection Process for the Community Air Protection Program

The California Air Resources Board (CARB) staff invite you to participate in a webinar to discuss staff's draft recommendations of new communities and the selection process under the Community Air Protection Program. This program focuses on improving public health in communities that experience disproportionate burdens from exposure to air pollutants. You can ask questions and learn more about:

- CARB staff's approach for developing recommendations for the consideration of new communities.
- CARB staff's draft recommendations for 2019.

OCTOBER 30, 2019
4:00 PM – 6:00 PM
